

SOUTHEAST ALASKA IMAGINATION LIBRARY

What is Dolly Parton's Imagination Library?

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library is a free book-gifting program for children from birth to age five. Enrolled children receive a new, age-appropriate book mailed directly to their home each month at no cost to their family.

This program is made possible through a partnership between The Dollywood Foundation, Best Beginnings, Southeast Childhood Collective, and local community supporters.

Children will continue receiving books until their fifth birthday, as long as they remain eligible and reside within the program service area. All you have to do is enjoy reading together!

Who is Eligible?

Children from birth to age 5 who reside in these Southeast Alaska communities are eligible to enroll:

Juneau/Douglas, Wrangell, Petersburg, Kake, Angoon, Haines, Gustavus, Tenakee, Yakutat, Prince of Wales Island, Sitka, & Skagway.

When Will My Child Receive Books?

Children who are enrolled by the 15th of the month will typically begin receiving books within 6–10 weeks. A new book will then be mailed to your child each month until their fifth birthday.

What are My Responsibilities?

1. Be a legal resident of Southeast Alaska.
2. Submit a completed registration form signed by a parent or legal guardian.
3. Keep your mailing address up to date. Books are mailed to the address provided on your registration form. If your address changes, please notify SCC to ensure your child continues receiving books.
4. Read and enjoy the books with your child.

How Can I Help?

Donations make this program possible. You can support the Southeast Alaska Imagination Library by volunteering, spreading the word, or donating.
